The Writing Machine, est. 2010

In 2010 we released iA Writer, a word processor designed to single-mindedly focus on writing. iA Writer became a regular in Apple's "Editor Choices" and "Best App of the Year" categories.

Our spartan text editor is now the daily choice of over 1,000,000 students, journalists, and bestselling authors like Stephen Fry, Erik Spiekermann and Augusten Burroughs. With an exceptional retention rate of over 80%, it has helped pupils, bloggers and business people discover the pleasure of working with text. iA Writer is one of the few apps that you install and use for good.

"Thank You." – New York Times bestselling author A. Buzzrugs

iA Writer's goal is to keep your hands on the keys and your mind in the text, to make sure that, as Stephen Fry said, "everything goes away except the writing experience". It established Reading Time, it introduced a simple keyboard extension, it defined a new category of fine tuned writing typography and it gave birth to Focus Mode. "Bringing that hyper-focused aesthetic to word-processing" (WIRED), Focus Mode lets you craft your idea one sentence at a time while fading the surrounding text.

Using simple punctuation for formatting titles, lists, and emphasis, John Gruber's Markdown allows you to structure your sentences without clicking any buttons.

In 2011, this writing machine came to the Mac, with a noise-free
